COUNTY COURTS.—The Circuit Court for the county, Judge Nicol presiding, was occupied most of yesterday with the suit for $10,000 for alleged personal injuries, brought by James Rector against the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant company upon a demurrer to the evidence. The company was represented by Col. F. L. Smith and Mr. R. W.

Moore, and the plaintill by Messrs.
Lipscomb and Ellison.
In the case of Ridgeway vs. the W.,
A. & Mt. V. Ry., a suit for damages for personal injuries claimed to have been sustained last October by an accident in the county, a demurrer was argued and Judge Nicol intimated that he and Judge Nicol intimated that he would su tain the demurrer to that part of the declaration which alleges that the railroad company did not have proper fences where the accident occurred. His opinion, however, was not rendered and he took the matter under advisement. The railroad company will make a big fight on this case and has employed Messrs. A. W. Armstrong, R. W. Moore and Espa Hunton to defend this suit. Judge Norton represents Mr. Ridgeway. resents Mr. Ridgeway.

No business was transacted in the Circuit Court today.

A NARROW ESCAPE. - A circusman who had six horses in charge came near losing his life and that of the animals at the intersection of Prince and Fayette streets at an early hour this morolog. A through passenger train from the South had just shot around the curve at Dake street and had almost reached Prince street. The cir-cusman, who did not see the train, was driving the horses toward the track when Mr. Henry Schlichting, who was near-by in his bread wagon, seeing the danger, called lustily to the man. The latter wheeled the borses barely quick enough to escape the locomotive, the engine and first car brushing against the animals as they stampeded.

THE CIRCUS arrived this morning in a bedraggled condition, and found the area on which they were to pitch their tents in a similar state. Notwithstanding all this, the small boy, who fell asleep last night, dreaming of acrobats, rope dancers, clowns, &c., was on hand with distended eyes and exuberant ex-The colored race, which is animated by a circus as much as is others by a Donnybrook fair, made their presence known. Shortly before noon the heavens became partially clear and the parade took place, which brought numbers, especially the little ones, out on the streets.

THE WEATHER.-The rainy and cool weather resumed its sway last night after the sunshine of yesterday evenwere rendered extremely disagreeable by the incessant drizzling rain, the muddy and sloppy streets and raw, penetrating atmosphere. Before noon, however, there was a lull and the skies become positially plant although became partially clear, although to Monday, were brought to this city thunder could be heard south of the city. During the remainder of the day city. During the remainder of the day the weather was fair but uncertain.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY, - An ordinance was introduced in the City Council last night in relation to the operation by the electric railway company of cars upon its tracks in the city. Amo the sections is the following: "The failure of said company to run any car over any portion of its road within the city of Alexandria shall not be deemed an abandonment of its tracks or of its right to maintain and operate its road whenever it sees fit to do so." The ordinance was referred to the com-mittees on streets, general laws and

ESCAPED.—The man who robbed the signal tower at Washington and Ohio Junction Monday night it seems had previously entered the office of the Jackson-Phillips Brick Company at Waterloo and robbed the place of a number of articles, including $30 taken from the safe. He subsequently made an uncessful attempt to enter the post-office at Brickhaven. After having robbed the tower at W & O. junction John A. Crowley, a telegraph operator in the tower, followed him. The thief walked to Jackson City and entered one of the houses there. It was then about 2 a. m. Crowley followed and demanded his property. He noticed that a watch fob hung from the man's coat pocket and, recognizing it as
